

It clearly appears to me that control of our radio, TV & Newspapers is being taken over by fewer and fewer people (owners). The newscoverage we see today is clearly not in as much depth as it has been in the past. This can only get worse as the ownership of our airwaves is controlled by fewer and fewer people. You must protect the needs of or people to access to fair and unbiased information above all other needs.

Ray Riley